

Dr Willy Wo-Lap Lam

With 40 years of experience writing and researching about China, Willy Lam is a recognized authority on areas including the Chinese Communist Party, elite politics, foreign policy, the People's Liberation Army, as well as the country's economic and political reform.

Since 2007, Dr Lam has been an Adjunct Professor at the Chinese University of Hong Kong (Centre for China Studies, History Department and the Master's Program in Global Political Economy). He is also a Senior Fellow at Jamestown Foundation, a foreign-policy think tank in Washington D.C. Earlier in his career, Dr Lam worked in senior editorial positions in international media including Asiaweek newsmagazine, South China Morning Post, and CNN.

Willy's views on China are frequently sought by global media. The veteran Sinologist has published seven books on China. They include: Routledge Handbook of the Chinese Communist Party (Routledge, New York, 2017); Chinese Politics in the Era of Xi Jinping (Routledge, New York, 2015); Chinese Politics in the Hu Jintao Era (M E Sharpe, New York, 2006); An Unvarnished Portrait of Hu Jintao (in Japanese) (Shogakukan Press, Tokyo, 2002); The Era of Jiang Zemin (Prentice Hall, Singapore & New York, 1999); and China after Deng Xiaoping (John Wiley & Sons, Singapore & New York, 1995).

Dr Lam was educated at the University of Hong Kong, University of Minnesota and Wuhan University, where he gained a Ph.D. in Political Economy.